Tesco says it wants a shopping park store

A MAJOR redevelopment of Hednesford has moved a step closer after Tesco formally agreed to build an 80,000 sq ft supermarket in the town centre.

Signing a lease committing to the store at the Victoria Shopping Park has triggered Cannock Chase Council's agreement to redevelop the area with regeneration firm St Modwen.

The council has now passed two legal milestones and its plan to deliver the regeneration programme by the end of the year is on track.

Councillor Diane Todd, town centre regeneration portfolio leader, said: "This latest news takes us a step closer to achieving our vision for Hednesford town centre."

Boost

"Now that a formal agreement is in place, developers St Modwen will be able to have serious discussions with other major retailers about opportunities in Hednesford."

"Victoria Shopping Park and Chase Gateway are on course to be completed this year, delivering a major boost to the town."

St Modwen development surveyor Mark Watkins said it was fantastic news.

Councillor Todd warned pedestrians and motorists were likely to face disruption during construction.

Bagpackers raise funds

MORE THAN £6,000 was raised during bag packs at a Cannock's Sainsbury's superstore over Christmas.

Eight charities benefited with £1,384 going to the 2415 Squadron Penkridge Air Cadets.

Cannock-based Special Needs Adventure Playground (SNAP) received £357, Burntwood Rotary Club got £288 and Lichfield Rugby Club earned £1,100.

The 144 Squadron Air Cadets picked up £2,159, while Cardinal Griffin School was donated £1,100.

SPEEDING BLITZ IN DANGER ROAD

By Tim Spiers

TRAFFIC calming measures could be introduced on a Hednesford street after 50 motorists were caught speeding in just two hours. Residents and councillors had voiced concerns about speeds near Hednesford Town FC.

They had expressed fears that an area of Keys Park Road, between the football club's ground and the TNT depot, was becoming a death trap.

Councillor Gordon Ball in Keys Park Road

There were suggestions that some cars were travelling up to 60mph in a 30mph zone.

Staffordshire county councillors John Bernard and Phil Jones, as well as Cannock chase councillor Gordon Ball, took up the issue and an initial speed spot check seemed to confirm their concerns.

Councillor Ball, ward member for Hednesford South, said people had been contacting him about the street for years and that he would be starting a petition if nothing was done.

"There was an accident just before Christmas and in fact there have been a number of incidents on that road," he added. "You get people going at 60mph but 30 should mean 30. It's not even safe to travel at 40."

Chicane

"There is a feeling from residents that something urgently has to be done, or something much more serious will arise."

"Whether that means a speed camera, speed bumps or a chicane I don't know; it's up for the council to decide and residents should be consulted on that."

The initial speed check was organised earlier this month by Cannock police and Staffordshire County Council's road safety department.

Councillor Bernard said the figures proved there was a problem on Keys Park Road and confirmed the local authority would be looking at the issue.

"We're going to get in touch with the highways department this week to see what can be done," he said. "It may be a matter of improving signage so that people are more aware of the speed limit."

Fellow Hednesford and Rawsley county councillor Phil Jones said he had already received a complaint as a result on an accident on Keys Park Road.

"Hopefully people will slow down if they know that checks are being made there," he said.

Bar's Scot the best party night

Bar Sport owner Scott Murray and piper Gary Lees promote Burns Night

A CANNOCK bar is hosting what it describes as 'the biggest Scottish party in the Midlands' to celebrate Burns Night.

The Premier Suite, above Bar Sport, in High Green, hosts a weekend of celebrations, beginning on Saturday, January 28.

The line-up includes Scottish party band Celtic, a Rod Stewart tribute, highland dancers and a traditional piper.

A Scottish themed meal will be served with tickets for the night at £24.50. It starts at 7.30pm. Celebrations continue the following day with a Scottish themed family Sunday lunch from noon with a traditional Ceilidh band, piper, highland dancers and children's magician.

Premier Suite owner Scott Murray said: "This is our fifth Burns and it is always superb. I believe it is the biggest in the Midlands."

Auction of gear used by tragic diver Carl

WATCHES and other memorabilia from the estate of a Cannock diver go under the hammer next week.

They offer an insight into the world of Carl Spencer, who always insisted he was "just a plumber from Cannock", but was invited by film director James Cameron to explore the sunken Titanic in 2003.

The 37-year-old died while exploring the wreck of Titanic's sister ship, Britannic, in the Aegean Sea near Greece in 2009.

Some of his watches as well as memorabilia items from some of the wrecks he explored will go up for auction on Monday, January 23, with Fellows Auctioneers.

Transfer

Stephen Whittaker, of Fellows Auctioneers, said: "Carl Spencer was a world famous local diver and this collection shows some of the remarkable dives he took part in."

Mr Spencer's Rolex Sea Dweller will go under the hammer with an estimate of £3,000, alongside two limited edition Doxa diving watches, with estimates of £1,000 to £1,500.

A colour print of the Titanic and a Minton's blue and white transfer plate was recovered from the wreck of Carpathia, which went to Titanic's aid in 1912.

Venue shut for revamp

CHASE Leisure Centre will be closed for four days from February 3 as part of a major refurbishment.

A new health and fitness area - called Profiles - as well as a reception and golf area, will be installed at the Stafford Road centre.

The sports hall will be closed from February 3 to March 16, with classes relocated to other rooms.

A 25-metre competition swimming pool, changing area, Motiv8 studio and spectator gallery will also be installed.

Merger idea to save child centres

CHILDREN'S centres in Staffordshire will be saved by merging the management of neighbouring sites.

The move bucks the national trend which has seen centres – previously known as Sure Start – cut their services to meet slashed budgets. Council chiefs claim the proposals affecting seven centres in both Stafford and Cannock and five in Lichfield will cut red tape rather than services. The authority has launched a consultation this week which will run until March 11.

The proposals would see children's centres in the same district working more closely by sharing management. The aim is to ensure consistency within geographical areas as well as saving money by reducing administrative costs.

A second proposal would see the county council move away from providing childcare places and inviting the wider private and voluntary sector to take over.

County chiefs estimate this would save £800,000 of public money and would also support local businesses as well as the voluntary and private sectors.

Councillor Mike Lawrence, cabinet member for children's wellbeing, said the plans had come at a time when many local authorities were cutting back on subsidised children's services.

He said Staffordshire was working to make its centres more tailored and cost-effective. The proposed changes would see the activities and services offered at the centres widened so that they best meet the needs of the community, he added.

Blocks of flats set to have revamps

RUNDOWN blocks of council flats across the Cannock district which have been neglected for years will get a £679,000 of improvements.

The majority of work to 31 blocks containing 188 flats is scheduled to be finished within three years.

The Cherry Tree and Ravenshill estates in Breerton, Hawkstone and Walsall Road areas of Cannock and Moss Road, Chads Moor, will receive the facelift.

A report to Cannock Chase Council paints a grim picture of faulty door entry systems, "depressing" entrance halls and out-of-use bin stores plagued by yobs.

It states that the communal areas have not received "any programmed maintenance work for many years" and are now in a sorry state.

Carpets will be laid and the walls of entrance halls and corridors repainted.

Faulty doors and secure entry systems will be replaced.

Bin stores at Moss Road and Walsall Road estates, which have become magnets for anti-social behaviour, will be demolished.

The council's cabinet was expected to approve the works this Thursday.

A&E looks to miss deadline

HEALTH trust bosses have revealed that they are unlikely to make the original three-month deadline for reopening the A&E department at Stafford Hospital on a full-time basis.

Lyn Hill-Tout, chief executive of the Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, said there has been a struggle to get the required number of qualified staff in the roles which need filling.

She insisted health care in Cannock and Stafford was not at risk. Every effort was being made to reopen the department fully but it was unlikely to be by March 1.

Homes revival

MORE than 1,000 empty homes in South Staffordshire are to be brought back into use to tackle the shortage of affordable properties. Almost half have been empty for more than six months, with Great Wyrley and Cheslyn Hay among the problem areas for South Staffs District Council.

Underweight greyhound found riddled with fleas

A BURNTWOOD woman has been banned from keeping animals for life after her pet greyhound was found seriously underweight and riddled with fleas.

Jane Filmer, of St Matthews Avenue, pleaded guilty to two charges of causing unnecessary suffering to an animal.

The RSPCA were called after a tip-off about the state of the female dog, Cassie.

RSPCA prosecutor John Sutcliffe told Burton Magistrates Court Cassie was extremely underweight with a heavy flea infestation.

An RSPCA inspector went to the 42-year-old's home last July and found Cassie smelling of "yeast" and looking "skeletal".

She was scratching constantly and generally looked neglected.

The court heard Filmer told the RSPCA she had been trying to treat the flea problem with an over-the-counter product as she could not afford to go to the vet.

Itching
Mr Sutcliffe said that with Filmer's permission the inspector took the dog to a vets in Cannock to determine Cassie's 'body score'.

Animals are scored on a scale of nought to nine, with nine being of obese and nought being close to death. Cassie's score was one.

The vet said her whole body was covered in fleas. She was given medicinal shampoo and a steroid injection to help with the itching.

When Filmer returned to the vets with Cassie a month later all her fleas had gone and she had put on 21kg.

Mr Terry Perry, defending, said she was not uncaring and had pleaded guilty at the earliest opportunity.

He said: "She didn't totally neglect the dog, she went to the shops for sprays and shampoo."

She was banned from keeping animals for life, given a nine-month conditional discharge with £250 costs.

Property firm signs new deal

A FLEDGLING property company is really motoring after striking a deal with car leasing specialists Flexible Vehicle Contracts.

The Anglesey Group – a property management, development and investment company – was recently launched by managing director Jonathan Pritchard following a £6 million bank finance deal.

Jonathan, son of property entrepreneur Fred Pritchard, has ambitious plans for the Cannock-based venture. It immediately takes over the management of more than 200 properties.

The business contract hire deal with the Barton-Under-Needwood company, means Jonathan and his property maintenance team have a small fleet of vehicles to help them manage and maintain properties across the region.

Adam Mellor, director of Flexible Vehicle Contracts, said: "It's great to see Jonathan beginning an exciting new venture and we are delighted to have been able to provide him with the vehicles he needs to put him on the road to success."

Jonathan said: "It was important that we were able to agree a deal that provided us with the right vehicles and at the right price."

Increase in the jobless

CANNOCK saw a rise in the numbers out of work in December – in line with the national figures.

The number claiming Jobseeker's Allowance in the district was up by 13 to 2,227 – 3.6 per cent of the workforce.

Lichfield saw a fall of just one to 1,505 (2.5 per cent). The figure for South Staffordshire was up 25 to 1,747 (2.6 per cent).

Nationally unemployment reached 2.68 million, the highest level in 17 years.

The number of jobless 16 to 24-year-olds increased to 1.04 million.

Agility classes

BOSSES at a Cannock centre have been handed lottery cash to start dog agility classes. The Avon Business & Leisure Centre, in Avon Road, was granted £8,249. All the equipment and a trainer is in place and an open day is being held for people to find out more. It takes place on Sunday, January 29, from 2-4pm.

Scholarship takes off with would-be pilot

Karen Lucas, Daniel Statham and Nick Pollock

TEN lucky students have been chosen to receive the Midland Expressway Limited Scholarship for the current school year.

The awards are designed to offer students a much-needed financial boost during their inaugural year at university or college.

They were awarded their £2,000 scholarships at ceremonies at their schools, the first of which was made to Daniel Statham at Kingsmead Technology College, Hednesford. It was made by Karen Lucas, MEL's HR manager.

Daniel, a member of the Air Cadets since the age of 13, is studying aviation technology with pilot studies at Leeds University. He wants to be a commercial pilot and eventually be a first officer pilot for a European airline.

Kingsmead head of sixth form Nick Pollock said: "Dan is an exceptional student and was an outstanding member of our school community. We at Kingsmead offer Dan our congratulations."

Tom Fanning, chief executive of Midland Expressway, said: "Going on to university or college is a huge investment especially in these difficult times and we feel that this scholarship will make a real difference to local students."

Leader of Staffordshire County Council Philip Atkins added: "This scholarship is excellent news for young people in Staffordshire, and will give them welcome financial boost on their way to further education. The essence of this scholarship is the emphasis not just on helping Staffordshire young people, but also what these young people can give back to Staffordshire once they have completed their education."

Details of the qualifying criteria and the next application process will be on Midland Expressway's website www.m6toll.co.uk later this month.

£35,600 disability fraudster was working as lorry loader

A BENEFITS cheat fraudulently claimed for disabilities while holding down a full-time job as a lorry loader, a court has heard. Video footage was shown as evidence.

Film, which was acquired from the depot of transport firm TNT, showed Mark Gittings, aged 41, from Cannock "doing everything an able-bodied man can do."

Mr Richard Dewsbury, prosecuting, told Stafford Crown Court that TNT, which is based in Wimblebury Road, Cannock, even made Gittings an instructor for manual lifting and handling techniques.

However, over eight years, he claimed disability living allowance and the higher rate mobility allowance as well as a carer's allowance. The total he fiddled from taxpayers was £35,627.

Shamed

Gittings, of Hawthorne Road, Wimblebury, admitted one charge of failing to notify a change of circumstances and was given a four-month prison sentence, suspended for three months and ordered to pay £450 costs.

Judge Mark Eades told him: "You stand in this court shamed as a man who has dug in to the public purse for your own personal advantage."

Mr Dewsbury said Gittings made a legitimate claim for benefits in 1997 because of a spinal deformity. He had to wear callipers and platform shoes and needed help washing and dressing.

But in April 2003 he applied for a job in the loading bay at TNT, telling them he was "hardworking and reliable".

He underwent a medical examination and was taken on, initially on lighter duties but that was lifted in 2004.

Mr Steven Rudge, defending, said Gittings suffered from spina bifida and a deformity of the feet, yet still managed to find work. His employers were keeping his job open for him as long as he did not go to jail.

Artwork's in picture at gallery

ARTISTS at a Burntwood school are competing with the big boys after opening their own museum and gallery.

The students will use the gallery to display nationally important works of art as well as their own.

Students at Chase Terrace Technology College in Bridge Cross Road have been working on the ambitious project, the first of its kind in Staffordshire, for several months.

Part of the college library was converted to house the new Phoenix Centre which features 14 new display cases and a small gallery for paintings.

Major

Work from major Midland museums – including those at Wedgwood, Ironbridge and the Potteries – are exhibited alongside the students' own artwork.

The gallery was jointly opened by Councillor Bernard Derrick, chairman of Lichfield District Council, and Councillor Eric Drinkwater, chairman of Burntwood Town Council.

Work by Wyreley-born portrait artist Andrew Tift, who has exhibited at the National Portrait Gallery, is on display. He was a special guest at the launch.

Mr Tift has also had work bought for display by the Smithsonian in Washington DC.

A WORRIED reader who was born in Scotland but lives in England inquires whether, if Scotland becomes independent, she will still be able to call herself British.

I have advised her that while I will certainly be British, she will probably have to get used to being a Pict.

THE Good Childhood Report 2012 tells us that at least 500,000 British children are unhappy with their lives.

Last Sunday we went for a brisk stroll in the country and encountered three family groups of mother, father and children. In each case, the father was on his mobile phone.

You see it all the time. What ought to be a cheerful, interactive family group has one or two members who are in the group but out of the loop.

Children love to talk to, joke with and have the approval of their parents. Too many parents, especially fathers, seem to have no particular interest in their children, and the mobile phone is the perfect medium for ignoring them.

And we wonder why half a million kids are unhappy?

I'VE not yet seen The Iron Lady but I caught a radio debate on whether Meryl Streep's Thatcher has the voice of the original Tory leader or the Spitting Image puppet version.

In fact, on radio without the distraction of the image, Streep's Thatcher sometimes sounded more like Miss Piggy.

A READER believes he has found the proof to convert us atheists. It appears in a recent report that Mark Thatcher has moved to a Caribbean island where he will rub shoulders with Cilla Black, Simon Cowell and Sir Paul McCartney.

"In light of this," says the reader. "How can you possibly say that hell doesn't exist?"

A READER who clearly knows his baldricks from his wrist bells answers my query on why there are so many Morris dancing groups these days who black their faces. He says it reflects growing interest in the "dramatic and energetic" Border Morris style.

I'm not sure I am convinced, having seen a report of one Morris side which has had to cancel three bookings because people took offence at their blacked-up faces.

An outsider might get the impression that the blacking-up is more important than the dancing.

Twitchers in a flap over rare bird

CANNOCK Chase has seen a surge in birdwatchers hoping to catch site of a rare species.

A grey shrike was spotted at Upper London, near Startley Lane, last year and there have been further sightings since, says Nick Pomiankowski, who records Staffordshire sightings for West Midlands Bird Club.

He said: "One was found at Upper London on November 17 and has remained in a clearfell area. The other was found near the Cadet Huts/Shooting Butts on Cannock Chase on October 20 and was last reported on January 6."

Mr Pomiankowski said it was uncommon to see two of the songbirds. He said the odd one had been spotted on Cannock Chase before, but it was unusual to see two.

Tourism website Enjoy Staffordshire has posted a picture of the bird on Twitter to help people identify it.

Enthusiasts have taken to the social networking site to discuss the bird.

Neil Coley posted: "Might pop up to Cannock Chase to do some birdwatching - it's such a lovely day and an unusual bird has been seen there - a grey shrike."

The shrike, known as the 'Butcher Bird', is described as medium-sized birds, measuring up to 20 inches or 50 centimetres in length, with grey, brown, or black and white plumage.

The Great grey shrike

Cycle legend rides into town for book signing

REVERED cycling legend Graeme Obree is visiting a Cannock bike shop as part of a whistle-stop book signing tour. The Obree Way is a training manual for cyclists.

The book, which has been 17 years in the making, has just been released and Obree will be signing copies at Bridgton Cycles, off Walkmill Lane, on Sunday (January 22).

Leela puts on fashion event to aid charity

A TEENAGE beauty queen is using her glamour title to raise funds for a local charity.

Leela Hanson, winner of Miss Teen Staffordshire Galaxy 2011, is organising a fashion show for the Newlife Foundation in Cannock.

The 17-year-old from Burntwood, who won the title in June, will model clothes from the charity's large store in Hemlock Way, Hawks Green.

She said: "I wanted to put my title to good use and help people who need it."

"I am studying dance at Walsall College and ultimately want to be a dancer but I know that many children don't get the opportunities I have."

Help

Proceeds from the event at Chase Terrace Technical College, Burntwood, will go to the charity and help buy equipment for local disabled and terminally ill children.

Sixth formers will also act as models. All clothes modelled will be available to buy on the night.

Tickets for the show on January 31 are on sale from the college for £2 each.

Newlife's fundraising manager Nora Smith said: "We are very grateful to Leela."

Best known for twice breaking the world hour record in the 1990s, Obree has led a colourful life on and off the track and even had a film made about him - The Flying Scotsman - in 2006.

The book targets entry level cyclists, club cyclists and anybody looking to improve their performance on a bike, as well as analysing training and offering an insight from the perspective of a world champion.

Obree has spoken candidly about issues such as mental health and sexuality, with his Flying Scotsman book receiving glowing reviews.

Invited

His only other appearances on the book signing tour will be in London and Manchester and Katie Bond, office manager at Bridgton Cycles said staff they were looking forward to his visit.

Owner of the family-run shop, Mike Taylor, met Obree last year and invited him to stage a book signing.

Katie said: "He's a bit of a legend and we're all excited to have him over."

"It's a big thing for the shop and the customers - he's an amazing cyclist."

The shop has a distinguished history in the cycling world, particularly in time trialling, with Mike's brother Lynne the current Land's End to John O'Groats record holder.

The signing will be from noon to 2pm. There will be refreshments and fundraising for charities related to two customers.

Family joy as Evelyn turns 90

Evelyn McCormack celebrates her 90th birthday with members of her family

CHAMPAGNE and music were on the menu when a Cannock care home resident celebrated her 90th birthday.

Evelyn McCormack and her family marked the occasion with a party at The Grange care home in Cannock Wood Street, where residents were also treated to cake and wine.

Evelyn, originally from Birmingham, has dementia but her daughter Davina said she very much enjoyed her big day. "She was on great form and enjoyed it as much as she could," said Davina, who is one of Evelyn's two children. Martin is the other.

"She's a bit of a cheeky character and she gets on really well at The Grange," added Davina.

"They do a fantastic job and provide a loving service to the residents."

Lisa Hughes, The Grange's activities coordinator, added: "It was an eventful afternoon - Evelyn is part of the family here."

Bra depot campaign is given support

A CANNOCK car company is offering its full support for an appeal for women to donate their unwanted bras to Breast Cancer Care.

We Want Any Car, which has a branch in Watling Street, is sponsoring the appeal, which is being jointly run by Beacon Radio.

Bra banks have been set up across the West Midlands, including Cannock, for people to drop off bras of any size, shape or condition, as long as it has a £1 coin in each cup.

Money from the We Want Any Bra campaign goes straight to Breast Cancer Care, with a bra-ometer on the appeal website showing how much has been raised.

Tim Clapham, operations director at wewantanycar.com, said: "We believe it is important to support local organisations providing such vital support to those affected by breast cancer."

"Many of our colleagues have known someone or been affected in some way themselves and this is a great opportunity to give something back to support the community."

Depots can be found at www.wewantanycar.com as well as details on how workplaces can get involved in.

Heath to get cattle once more

FIVE Dexter cattle are being put to Chasewater Heaths to help manage the Site of Special Scientific Interest.

A local farmer is loaning them and they will be welcomed onto a field on the north shore next Wednesday (January 25).

The breed was chosen because Dexters are a small hardy native species with a good temperament.

There will be heifers, females that have not had a calf, and steers, castrated males. They will help Lichfield District Council to manage the heathland, by grazing on the vegetation, which if left unattended would revert into woodland.

If it is successful, the council's countryside team will extend the grazing area and increase the number of cows throughout the year.

Councillor Alan White, cabinet member for development services, said: "After a break of two years, we're really pleased the cows are coming back to Chasewater."

"We couldn't use them last year because of the disruption from the works to the dam, and because sections of fencing and the gates, which keep the animals from straying off the site, were damaged by vandals."

The have been replaced with hardened steel.

Fitness gear up outdoors

NEW outdoor fitness apparatus aimed at older people has been installed at a Cannock Chase village.

It comprises three pieces of apparatus which can be used by two people at a time and has been set up on the playing field at Cannock Wood.

It was officially opened by Councillor Matthew Ellis, cabinet member for adults and wellbeing.

Pat Ansell, chairman of the Beaudesert Sports Field and Recreation Ground Trust, said: "We wanted facilities suitable for all ages and abilities from nine to 90 years."

Donate blood

BLOOD donors are invited to roll up their sleeves in Cannock next week. NHS Blood and Transplant is appealing for volunteers to attend sessions at the Civic Centre in Beecroft Road on Monday, January 23. To make an appointment, between 1.30 and 3.30pm and from 4.30 to 7.30pm call 0300 1232323.

Contractor appointed for £9.7m rebuild of academy

THE £9.7 million rebuild and refurbishment of a Hednesford school has moved a step closer. A contractor was appointed to carry out the work at Staffordshire University Academy.

by Mark Mudie

Balfour Beatty has won the tender for what was formerly known as Blake Valley Technology College in Marston Road.

It reopened in September under its new name with David Evans as principal.

Education bosses want to install new buildings and refurbish some old ones and detailed plans for the new buildings are now being drawn up.

Staffordshire County Council has selected Balfour Beatty following an eight-week selection process. Willmott Dixon had also submitted a bid.

Bosses felt the chosen developer would be able to deliver their "educational vision" while they also saluted Balfour Beatty for their commitment to working with the community as they worked on their plans.

Improved

Construction of the new buildings is expected to start in March next year with the project due to finish by May 2014.

Improved sports facilities, which will be made available to the public, form part of the multi-million pound scheme.

Staffordshire University, which sponsors the academy, believes a refurbished school will create "a dynamic, innovative community-centred academy that would raise aspirations and achievement, transform learning, deliver excellence and regenerate the local community".

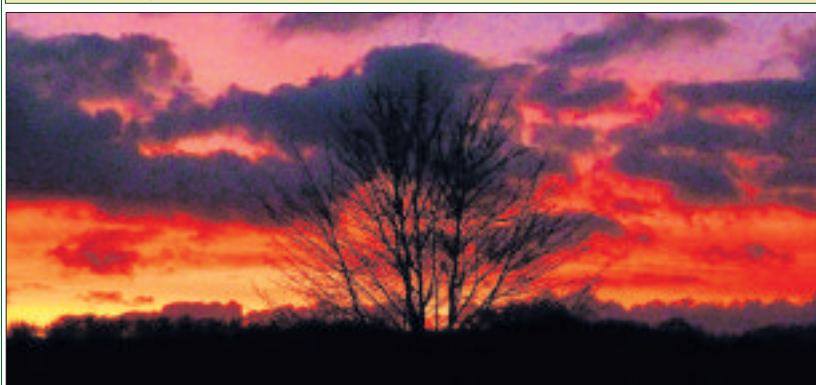

Doors

The new academy's aim is to increase the number of pupils achieving five or more good passes at GCSE to at least the county average.

The newly-formed Erasmus Darwin Academy in Burntwood and Fair Oak Academy in Rugeley opened their doors at the same time as Staffordshire University Academy.

Erasmus Darwin replaced Chasestown Specialist Sports College while Fair Oak Business and Enterprise College made way for Fair Oak Academy.

Neighbours win call to get play area removed

A CONTROVERSIAL play area is to be removed after residents living nearby claimed it was making their lives hell.

Members of Cannock Chase Council's planning committee ruled the play site at the heart of the Park Farm residential estate, between Peregrine Way and Pheasant Way, in Heath Hayes, must go.

Councillors meeting last Wednesday (January 11) said the site had caused endless misery for people living nearby. The area is open 24 hours and causes noise problems.

Neil Owens, who lives in Peregrine Way, told the council 33 residents had signed a petition saying the play area made their lives hell, and there were 34 letters of objection to the site. Mr Owens said residents were woken by people singing and drinking. Hawks Green councillor John Bernard also said footballs hitting a gate made people's lives a misery.

He said: "Since a metal cage was put there, the noise has been horrendous."

Complaints

Persimmon Homes had to apply for retrospective planning permission for the site, for which there had been a flood of complaints over anti-social behaviour.

But documents prepared for planning chiefs said there was scant evidence for the complaints. The report said: "There have been a total of 24 incidents of anti-social behaviour since May 2011."

"These complaints are primarily about the children playing in the play area, being loud and kicking the ball against the fence. This is not anti-social behaviour."

Despite complaints including stone-throwing, and youths drinking, police did not witness these acts, the report added.

Calling for the retrospective application to be denied, Cannock North councillor Frank Allen said: "People's lives have been affected by this and that should be a number one concern."

The play area is Heath Hayes, which is to be taken down

Site in 'perfect location' say parents in support

RESIDENTS in support of the controversial play area say they are shocked to hear it will be removed.

After hearing from residents about how youths use the area for anti-social behaviour, Cannock Chase Council's planning committee ruled that the site caused too much trouble for local residents.

But some parents said they did not know what all the fuss was about.

Jenny Haden, of Capercallie Drive, said: "I think it's a good idea, it gives the kids somewhere to go and play safely. I've personally never seen any trouble and I think it would be nice to keep it."

A mother-of-two, who lives in Pheasant Way, who did not want to be named, said: "I've got two little ones and it's in a perfect location for me."

Patch

"It was worse before it was there because people were always playing on that patch of land and I was forever getting a ball kicked against my front door."

"I honestly don't know what they are moaning about."

Pals toast venture

Jack Walton and Mitch Bromwell who have taken over The White Hart in Penkridge

TWO friends have landed their dream jobs by taking over a popular Penkridge pub.

Jack Walton, aged 24, and Mitch Bromwell, 21, from Heath Hayes, are now at the helm of The White Hart in Penkridge.

As a child, Jack, from Penkridge, used to go to the pub with his family, and his mother was even a barmaid there.

He said: "The White Hart is the kind of pub we wanted to run. It's a good community pub with massive potential."

"I've known the pub from an early age."

His mum Diane Spilsbury was a barmaid there some 20 years ago. Jack is also a keen wildlife photographer and is displaying his work in the pub in Stone Cross.

Dad in film hopes over bid to find missing son

A CANNOCK man who travelled across the world to rescue his son from his estranged wife is in talks with Hollywood bosses about turning his story in to a major film.

by Harry Gottschalk

In 2010, Sean Felton, of Norton Canes, travelled to a remote village in Thailand to track down his three-year-old son Jobe who was taken by Mr Felton's wife Kim.

Mr Felton, who had met his wife five years earlier on holiday in Thailand, returned home with the boy.

Mr Felton's book about his story is released on both sides of the Atlantic next month and Hollywood scriptwriters are currently hammering out a screenplay for studio executives.

Journey

He said: "I have a PR company who are getting someone to start writing the script, based on the book."

Scared of the Dark is out next month and the 40-year-old painter and decorator, who lives in Poplar Street may soon be invited to Los Angeles to speak to Hollywood executives about his experience. Mr Felton's amazing journey started when he posed as a rich American playboy to trace his estranged wife. Using Facebook, he set up a false account, pretending to be a Ferrari-owning American.

His Thai wife fell for his attention and accepted him as a Facebook friend.

Once he had access to her profile, he made contact with some of her Facebook friends and eventually he traced his wife to a remote village in Chiang Rai.

Mr Felton's next move was to hire a solicitor who went to the High Court to get legal custody.

Mr Felton was awarded the right to have full custody of his son and flew to Thailand. Police drove him to a village where he was taken to a hut and found his son and the two headed home.

Action to lower fuel costs at a standstill

CAMERON, Clegg and the Milibands agree that cuts to our economy need to be the way forward, but Cameron's order to open the doors of the NHS so 49 per cent of its work becomes private will destroy the service forever.

Councils across the country are making cuts that only affect the poor, while further policing cuts will create a national crime wave as more and more people are made redundant with little hope of finding work.

Action to reduce the costs of gas, electricity and fuel is at a standstill, so why are all three political parties prepared to increase the £50m per day to the EU to £73m? Their laws are accepted without question. We are to be forced to increase VAT on food and children's clothes and to accept a bankers and finance transaction tax.

When will someone in power put British people first?

HELEN OF HEDNESFORD

Historic event to honour a hero

I AM sorry to see that the Uxbridge pub in Hednesford has now been renamed. Not only does this show a lack of respect – or maybe a lack of knowledge – for a local hero but the timing could hardly be worse.

In a little over three years time, June 18, 2015, the country will be commemorating one of the most famous and important battles in our entire history the Battle of Waterloo in which Hednesford's own the Earl of Uxbridge played a major part. Henry William Paget, Earl of Uxbridge, lived at Beaudesert and was a national hero for his actions at Waterloo and his part in the final defeat of Napoleon Bonaparte. Lieutenant General the Earl of Uxbridge was the second highest ranking officer in the British army at Waterloo, effectively second in command to the Duke of Wellington himself. Uxbridge paid a high price for his heroics having had his leg blown off by a cannonball. It was buried near the scene and Uxbridge returned a hero. He was elevated to the Marquis of Anglesey and Marquis Drive and several other places in the area, including the Uxbridge pub, were named in his honour. I hope the people of Hednesford are able to celebrate this historic event as it could be a really great occasion that they can feel justly proud.

MALCOLM SINGLETON

A blinkered political policy being pursued

I SEE that George Adamson is again calling for the resignation of Aidan Burley. What shameful politically motivated opportunism.

The voters of Cannock Chase elected Mr Burley as their member of parliament and we do not need the likes of George Adamson to call for his resignation. He may have in hindsight been foolish to have attended that party, but let us remember it was a private affair. He has apologised.

Let us not forget all the hard work Mr Burley has put into representing and raising the profile of Cannock Chase for which jobs and businesses have benefited. George Adamson's carping just reminds us what a small-minded individual he is. He should devote his time to serving the district, co-operating with other councillors of all parties instead of pursuing a blinkered political policy. It was his political masters at national level that have left us such a dire legacy. Will he now be calling for Diane Abbott to resign?

Put 'Great' back into Britain

HOW the Labour fraternity are quick to blame Aidan Burley for his misjudgement.

He may have upset some people who have good reason to hate the Nazi symbol but Cannock twinned with a German town in 1971. Who then considered those who had fought and died only years before?

Many young people have to Google the word Nazi. Recent governments have avoided teaching the subject in schools and the word is still very raw with the older generation.

Aidan Burley has apologised and been punished. He should keep up his good work. It is young people like him who rebuild this country after the war. It will be young people who will be needed to rebuild it now. Put the 'Great' back in Britain.

No such thing as a devil dog

I HAVE a message to all stupid, lazy owners – if you can't be bothered to train your dog – don't have one.

I believe there are no devil dogs, just irresponsible devil owners. Clearly many of them need psychiatric help.

Why clean up their dog's mess and then throw the bags onto the pathway or even more disturbing – hang it from the branch of a tree?

These selfish owners smile as they their dogs run towards you, and scream "Don't jump up". When they do, don't even apologise. It's simple – put them on a lead!

SHEENA CARTER

Cruelty should mean an automatic life ban

OFTEN I read about animal cruelty and I had no idea that when someone is banned for life from keeping animals in most cases it only means for a few years – this disgusts me.

When anyone is guilty of any cruelty to animals it should carry an automatic ban for life, no excuses of any kind whatsoever.

No one has to have a pet, they choose to, so the very least they can do is provide that animal with the basics, food, water and safe shelter. I get so angry that all the owners of these poor animals all have pathetic excuses e.g. marriage breakdowns, loss of job, depression, the list goes on.

These animals are at their owners' mercy so the time has come to stop this cruelty. Jail them, fine them heavily with a real ban for life and maybe then these irresponsible owners will think twice before getting an animal.

Meals for MPs at taxpayers' expense

I HAVE just read about the House of Commons restaurants and bars. Meals and drinks are subsidised by the taxpayer and for every £10 spent the taxpayer has to fork out £7.60.

It now costs £5.8m a year in subsidies. Mr Cameron tells the public to take cuts to their wages and pensions while these greedy MPs get cheap meals at our expense. These subsidies have risen since this Tory – sorry coalition – have been in power.

Free cancer patients' parking could extend

'Hunnies' help heroes

A GROUP of Cannock friends have teamed up to pose for a fundraising calendar.

The girls have decided to support Help for Heroes as one of their friends served in the forces.

Kerrie Edwards, aged 29, who works in finance, said: "The idea of raising money for the Help for Heroes charity was from our friend

Tracey Fielding who herself was in the Women's Royal Army Corps and her husband Gary was in the Parachute Regiment for 23 years.

"We have raised all the money needed. We have worked really hard and I'm very proud of the girls for what we have achieved."

To buy a calendar email hunniesforheroes@yahoo.co.uk.

COUNCIL chiefs were this looking at extending a pioneering scheme that allows free parking for cancer patients.

The Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, which runs Stafford Hospital and Cannock Chase Hospital, is the first in the country to set up such a scheme which applies to any of the council's car parks in either town centre.

A trial was launched in March by the district council. A joint parking committee meeting was being held on Tuesday with a view to extending that period as not all the permits were taken up immediately.

The scheme applies to patients who do not automatically qualify for a blue badge but suffer from fatigue as a result of their treatment.

A report to the authority by the Mid Staffordshire Cancer User Forum stated that extreme tiredness is a very common and troubling symptom of cancer, affecting between 70 to 90 per cent of sufferers.

The aim of the initiative is to see if providing a blue badge for a temporary period makes their lives more tolerable by allowing them to park close to where they need to go, especially in busy town centres. The trust issues, and is responsible for, the return of the badges once the patients' condition improves.

Council officers say early indications suggest the scheme has been well received. In the first three months 12 permits were issued.

Since then only another three patients have received permits.

A report to the meeting says no real impact was noted on the council's car parks.

Sankeys Corner looking towards Cannock with the 5s chimney stack in the distance

An aerial photo of the shops at Sankeys Corner

Charlie Atkins' greengrocers' shop was an old First World War hut in Rugeley Road

Sweet memories of ye olde shops

AS with all shopping areas, changes can be seen throughout the passing years.

The differences have been made possible thanks to a change in shopping habits and an expanding population.

Sankeys Corner, now Burntwood town's main shopping area is no exception. The aerial view photo shows Sankeys with just the Co-op of any size, other shops being houses converted for retail use.

But this was sufficient to the mining village's needs as these local shops had all that was needed to get by and were literally next door or so

MEMORY LANE

by Ron Bradbury

away. Not many people had the money to browse supermarkets, even if there had been any.

Clearly seen among the pictures is a long line of advertising boards, where the shopping precinct is now. Burntwood village also only had a few shops and a post office. Rugeley Road had an old WWI army hut that was owned by Charlie Atkins that was a greengrocers-come-all shop.

This, like a lot of shops today, was invaded by bunches of us school-children on their way home eager to spend their pennies on some off-ratation sweets. For ourselves, strips of never-ending toffee was favourite, though they ended far too quickly for our liking, while gob-stoppers broke many a tooth of our gang trudging up the Cannock Knob or on the detour through the park.

Opposite Atkins' was Jack Fletcher's butchers. Note the gate to stop the dogs nipping in and stealing a joint or string of sausages.

Charlie's hut has long gone, but Robinson's Butchers still battles on there against the trend to make one stop shopping at the supermarket.

They were happy days, but on the whole we are a lot better off today.

Daker's shop, in High Street. Now a dental practice

Collection cash split for charity

Pair congratulated over grandchildren

LADIES PROBUS

CHAIRMAN Val Beale welcomed everyone to the January meeting with a special mention to Pat Bowring who had not been well, and wished them all a very happy New Year.

A minute's silence was held in memory of Betty Bourne who passed away in December. The collection instead of Christmas cards raised £68, shared between St Giles Hospice and the Air Ambulance.

Members were reminded that February would be the AGM and that the annual celebration lunch would be held in March.

Jenny Dunn was question master for two very light hearted quizzes. Barbara Cartwright gave the vote of thanks.

Carols and great prizes

CHASETOWN WI

THE last meeting of 2011 was the Christmas party, held at the Old Mining College, with all the ladies providing refreshments.

Treasurer Jayne had made up a splendid raffle with the star prize a Christmas hamper. They then sang carols, but usual keyboard player Terry was unable to be with the group, however, because of ill health.

Great-grandmother Del Johnson and Tricia Logan, who has become a grandmother

CANNOCK WI

PRESIDENT Stella Winfield wished members a very happy 2012 and congratulated Tricia Logan on the birth of her new grandchild, and retired president Del Johnson on becoming a great-grandmother.

Best wishes are given to this month's birthday girls: Kath Chackett, Doris Hitchens, Bronwyn Pace, Barbara Addison and Jenny Lee.

Helen Hallchurch discussed the 2012 resolutions and collected in the voting slips. A list of forthcoming events was announced.

Treasurer Barbara Mathews, Ellen Alcock and social secretaries Jenny and Jan were kept busy collecting this years subs and the transport fees for the panto trip to Birmingham on January 24.

Speaker Lynne Shields' topic was St Giles Hospice. Mrs Shields is a very enthusiastic fundraiser for the Hospice, which is now in its 30th year. Helen Hallchurch gave the vote of thanks.

The next meeting is on Thursday, February 9 from 10.30am at St Luke's Church hall. It will be a fun day with a beetle drive/bring and buy and the competition a funny Valentine poem and a hat pin.

Aid trust's moving photos

HEDNESFORD 'A' TWG

JANUARY 9's meeting was opened by chairman, Mrs Doreen Archer, who wished everyone a Happy New Year.

The speakers were from International Aid Trust who have charity shops in our area.

Moving "before and after" photographs showed the many projects funded by the shops. These included orphanages and hospitals mostly in eastern Europe. Other help is offered in the UK.

Practical assistance is given to things like women's refugees, single parents, the homeless and youth work.

The members were also shown pictures of children's happy faces as they opened their shoebox parcels donated in this country.

The boxes had been transported in the charity's own lorries driven by volunteers.

The next outing will be to The Grand Theatre on February 8 to see Sister Act. On February 15, the lunch club meal will be at Taylors, in Cannock.

Gas fitter turned robber after business went bust

A GAS fitter who robbed a shopkeeper at knifepoint after his business went bust was jailed for 40 months. Hooded Leigh Higgins, aged 37, was captured on CCTV threatening Steven Chahal with a martial-arts type blade.

Higgins, of Brereton Lodge, Rugeley, snatched around £600 from the till and ran off, Mr Pat Sullivan, prosecuting, told Stafford Crown Court last week. "Mr Chahal chased the defendant down the road and caught up with him three or four times," said Mr Sullivan. "Every time the defendant slashed out at him with the knife to warn him off."

Higgins admitted charges of robbery and possessing a blade. Mr Michael Cogan, defending, said Higgins's business folded and he resorted to drink, and self harming.

Brave Scott displays that star quality

Scott Lawford, aged nine, of Rugeley, shows off his Little Star award from Cancer Research

A RUGELEY youngster has been rewarded for his bravery in battling against a brain tumour. Scott Lawford, aged nine, now collected a Cancer Research UK Little Star award.

Scott was first diagnosed in January 2008 at the age of five and underwent surgery and weeks of gruelling radiotherapy and chemotherapy treatment. He had developed problems with his balance in September 2007.

Following the MRI scan, Scott spent months being treated at Birmingham Children's Hospital.

Mum Tracey gave up work to care for Scott full-time. She has two other sons, Ethan and Tom.

Brave Scott is now enjoying life at Etching Hill Primary School, in Rugeley. He still has regular check-ups and an MRI scan twice a year.

Proud

Scott has been left with hearing loss which means he wears two hearing aids and also suffers with cataracts. Tracey, who is now back at work as a childminder, spoke of her pride in the battling youngster.

Tracey takes part in Race for Life every summer at Stafford to raise money for Cancer Research UK.

by Catherine Dalton

"We are all so proud of Scott and the way he just got on with his treatment without any fuss," she said.

"He has been left with other health problems but he is happy," she added.

"Scott has had to deal with things no youngster should face.

He absolutely loves the Little Star award and took it into school to show all his friends and teachers."

Jane Bullock, a spokeswoman for Cancer Research UK, said: "Scott has been through such an awful lot at a young age and thoroughly deserves the Little Star award."

"We hope the courage of Scott and his family will inspire others to think of children like him."

Brush up your skills

AN evening class which will show budding artists how to advance their watercolour skills is being staged in the peaceful surroundings of a wildlife charity's headquarters.

Artist Sue Chatterton is leading a 10-lesson course for people who have some experience of using watercolours at Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's Wolsley Centre, in Wolsley Bridge, near Rugeley. It starts tonight (Thursday) at 7pm. The course costs £100. A proportion of the proceeds will go towards the trust's work. Call 01889 880100 for details.

More than 400 book in at new fire station

A wheely good offer

Gnarly Cycles manager Kieren Dorrington hands over the bike to PCSO Emma Beady

A POLICE officer will be taking to two wheels in Hednesford after a bike was donated to the force.

Gnarly Cycles, in Market Street, handed over the bike, a Peugeot Urbanite 6.0 to help keep PCSO Emma Beady on the move. They have also offered to maintain and look after the bike. Shop manager Kieren Dorrington said: "We wanted to give something back to the community. It will help to give a more visible police presence."

Pc Graham Arries, who covers the Hednesford area, said: "It really is appreciated."

A YEAR-OLD fire station in Cannock is proving successful in attracting bookings for its community rooms.

More than 400 bookings were taken in the first nine months, while in excess of 3,500 visitors took a look around the station in its first two weeks.

County fire chiefs say Cannock's community facilities have so far been the most successful. It offers community facilities, including a room for hire, free of charge and gym equipment.

The site, in Old Hednesford Road, was completely rebuilt a year ago as part of a multi-million pound overhaul which will eventually see all the county's fire stations rebuilt. So far 13 stations have been rebuilt to include community facilities, receiving 3,000 bookings last year.

Community liaison officer Ruth Haigh said: "We are delighted that the community facilities have been such a huge success."

"The number of bookings has exceeded our expectations and continues to rise. Cannock's community facilities opened in April 2011 and in less than a year have had 418 bookings, including 93 in November alone."

"It's fantastic that the local communities have embraced the new fire stations."

Some 3,530 people attended drop-in sessions, education visits and a family fun day at Cannock in the first two weeks of opening.

Groups interesting in booking the new facilities can ring 01785 898065.

Speed camera targeted

VANDALS have attacked a speed camera on a busy road in Cannock. The fixed point camera near the Chase Leisure Centre on the A34 Stafford Road appears to have been set on fire. Office manager Chris Martin, who reported the attack, said: "It looks like it's been set on fire in some way."

Jobs joy as McDonald's has support of planners

UP TO 70 jobs will be created after a McDonald's restaurant was approved for Rugeley. The drive-through will seat 85 diners and be built on derelict land near the town centre.

by Harry Gottschalk

Members of Cannock Chase District Council's planning committee unanimously backed the plans at a meeting last Wednesday (January 11).

Tesco has recently been given consent to build a supermarket at the site, off the A51 roundabout on Power Station Road.

McDonald's was also given permission for an outside seating area and car park at the location, part of Towers Business Park on the former Lea Hall Colliery site.

The plans were approved despite calls from the county council to reject the application on highways grounds.

Traffic

The Lander Local history Society had also voiced concerns.

Planning officer John Hemmings said the application did not contain any information on traffic generation or its effect on the nearby roundabouts, particularly on Saturdays and in the evenings. He also said insufficient consideration had been given to encouraging staff or customers to travel to the location by bus, train or bike and no justification had been given for the size of parking provision.

Brereton and Ravenhill councillor Raymond Easton said much of the restaurant's trade would come from people passing by anyway.

He said: "I think it should be approved because of the bypass going through there."

Cannock South councillor John Kraujalis told the meeting the location would be ideal.

He said: "It would be sandwiched between Tesco and Amazon and a local hotel — being there it can only enhance Rugeley. Local resident George Partou, of Thorn Close, Rugeley, submitted a letter of objection to the council, saying it could generate noise and become a magnet for anti-social behaviour."

Agency flying high

Customer services manager Lisa Halden, with sales assistants Karen Lester, Emily Wood, Lyndsey Winwood and manager Dawn Walther

A TRAVEL agency in Rugeley is enjoying its day in the sun after scooping a host of awards.

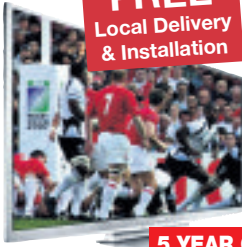

Thomas Cook in Rugeley was named the company's best small store at a glitzy ceremony in London, beating around 300 other branches to the accolade. The Upper Brook Street shop was also declared the finest in the West Midlands and third of 800 in the UK.

Manager Dawn Walther and customer services manager Lisa Halden travelled to the Evolution conference centre in Battersea Park to pick up their trophies.

Dawn said: "It recognises outstanding performance, not just hitting targets but going beyond them."

She added: "I'm really proud of my team. They are a very talented and supportive team and we've got 50 years of experience between us all."

Businesses invited to join free scheme

FIRMS in Staffordshire are being invited to take part in a scheme that is free for a limited period to help boost their business. The county council is promoting its environmental quality mark programme throughout January.

The scheme is aimed at companies in the tourism, accommodation and food industries.

Businesses already in the scheme include Colton House, the five-star Queen Anne residence near Rugeley. Members benefit from reduced running costs and free membership of the Staffordshire Business Environment Network.

Environment chief Councillor Mark Winnington said it gives businesses a real chance to grow and expand.

Fare trek by bus driver

Bus driver Andrew Mills, aged 37, who is embarking on a 25-mile charity walk dressed as a dragon

A CANNOCK bus driver is to walk 25 miles dressed as a dragon to raise money for charity.

Andrew Mills, aged 37, works for Arriva in Cannock and has been inspired to organise an event for the Wish Foundation. It is part of its Merlin's Million Miles campaign which helps grant wishes for children with severe disabilities and terminal illnesses.

Mr Mills, whose son Kieran has Down's Syndrome, said: "Being a father myself to a disabled child I understand the struggles many people face. My goal is to ask as many people as possible to donate a little - even if it is just £1."

"My hopes are that as the walk is 25 miles I can gather enough support to raise a target figure of £25,000."

Mr Mills, of Huntington Terrace Road, will set off from Lichfield bus station on March 10 and follow the 825 bus route linking Lichfield to Stafford and passing through Handsacre, Armitage, Rugeley, Colwich and Little Haywood.

High speed rail line will devastate wildlife – trust

THE Government's decision to approve the high speed rail line will have a devastating affect on the county's nature and habitats, according to the Staffordshire Wildlife Trust.

Trust bosses expressed disappointment that the first phase of High Speed 2, linking Birmingham to London, was given the go-ahead by Transport Secretary Justin Greening.

Research shows the route for HS2 phase one, to run from London to Birmingham, could threaten 160 wildlife sites.

In Staffordshire, seven ancient woodlands and 10 sites of biological importance are threatened.

The trust's head of conservation Sue Lawley said: "The Transport Secretary says the Government is committed to the lowest feasible impact on wildlife. Yet the mitigation measures announced focus on the noise and visual impact of HS2.

By Harry Gottschalk

"These measures will not necessarily prevent damage to fragile habitats - they could make matters worse. It is vital that the impacts on wildlife are not overlooked."

The trust is urging local people to sign an e-petition to stop HS2. It needs at least 100,000 signatures to force a parliamentary debate.

The petition can be signed at <http://epetitions.direct.gov.uk/petitions/353>

Boost in store for Dragons

YOUNG footballers have been boosted by a grant from a supermarket. Burntwood Dragons Under-15s have received £300 from Sainsbury's Cannock which they have invested in a new home kit and training tops.

Robert Hillman, manager of the Voyager Drive branch, said: "Our store is at the heart of the local community and it is important that we do as much as we can to support it."

The Sainsbury's Community Grant scheme is funded by sales of long-lasting shopping carrier 'bags for life'.

Liner hero James glad to be home

CRUISE liner dancer James Thomas, who was on board the stricken Costa Concordia, told this week how he helped rescue terrified passengers

James, aged 19, acted as a human climbing frame to help passengers into lifeboats from the huge vessel as it tilted ever further on to its side. Eleven people are so far known to have died in the tragedy, while the search continued for up to 24 others still missing from the £390 million liner which ran aground in darkness off Italy's west coast.

James, back at his family home in Whitethorn Crescent, Streetly, said: "It felt like we were in a film. We rehearse safety procedures every week but this was a very different situation."

"We couldn't get the lifeboats off and the liferafts that the staff use were stuck to the side of the ship. It was frightening."

"The ship was listing so much, our centre of gravity had completely shifted. Then it became more of a panic."

James, who had left all his possessions except for his phone, shifted into professional mode, putting the safety of others before his own.

Jumping

He helped dozens of other passengers towards the lifeboats, using his 6ft 3in frame to bridge the gap between decks three and four to help passengers clamber into the lifeboats.

He was then pulled towards a boat himself.

Meanwhile, James's worried parents, Jayne and Mark, had received a call from their middle son last Friday telling them the ship was going down.

James said the drama has not put him off the high seas again, but added: "I feel the same thing can't happen twice - but I'm looking to take a break from ships."

New heart machine to be life-saver at hospital

A LIFE-SAVING heart machine has been installed at Cannock Chase Hospital after a two-year fundraising campaign.

The British Heart Foundation launched an appeal for donations for the new machine, claiming it was "essential" patients had access to the equipment and did not have to travel miles for treatment.

Patients are now being scanned using the 3D echocardiograph ultrasound machine which gives a picture of what is happening inside the patient's heart.

It means holes in the heart and problems become visible, enabling potentially life-threatening conditions to be diagnosed more quickly.

Patients in Cannock Chase previously had to travel to Stafford Hospital.

The British Heart Foundation launched the 'My Heart in Cannock' Appeal in July 2009. A total of £50,120 was raised as part of the campaign.

Volunteers

Sidney Cooper, from Featherstone, was among the first patients to undergo a scan on the new machine.

He said: "I am really pleased as it saves a long journey to Stafford."

When the appeal was launched, BHF volunteers said Cannock Chase had one of the highest coronary heart disease death rates in the Midlands, but did not have access to life-saving diagnostic equipment.

The charity said it was "essential" that the hospital was equipped to provide the best possible treatment.

'Outrage' author's talk

The author of a book about the Great Wyrley horse maimings of 1903 is talking at Cod-sall Library next Tuesday (January 24). Roger Oldfield's talk is at 7pm. It centres on George Edalji, who enlisted the help of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle to prove his innocence. For tickets, at £2, or £1, call 01902 842764.

Samantha Taylor, from Gailey, won the Saks Education Apprentice of the Year contest, beating hundreds of other hopefuls from across the country. The 19-year-old works car park deferred again

A DECISION on plans to create a luxury housing estate on the site of a pub car park in Rugley has been deferred by councillors. JM Homes Ltd wants to build nine homes at The Prince of Wales pub, off Sheep Fair.

Members of Cannock Chase Council's planning committee originally voted in November to defer the application - which would reduce the number of parking spaces from 56 to nine - as they wanted to pay a site visit first. Last week, councillors put the scheme back again because they want the applicant to speak to the pub's bosses over car parking.

The Solihull-based developers say the pub's owners are happy to give up the car park spaces.

Leader takes dim view of plans to cut
street lights

STREET lights will be dimmed or switched off overnight in Staffordshire in a cost-cutting measure. County council bosses want to slash the authority's £9m annual lighting bill.

The authority is responsible for 107,000 street lights and has so far resisted moves to slash its bill.

Officers are now preparing a report for the Tory-led council's cabinet inviting members to "approve a county-wide strategy for the introduction of street light dimming".

A council document also requests "the introduction of part night switch off street lights when requested by local communities".

A report with detailed recommendations is expected in March or April.

Highways chief, county councillor Mike Maryon, pledged to hold discussions with residents before any final decision was made.

He said: "The county council spends up to £9m a year on street lighting across Staffordshire."

Compromise

"In the current financial climate we must be prudent and look carefully at how we can be more efficient and save council taxpayers' money without compromising the safety of local people."

"Nothing has been decided and nothing will be until we have talked with residents."

Fence

Mr Weare was hit by another car after climbing out of his vehicle when it ran into a fence.

The 43-year-old father-of-two, from Honiton, Devon was competing at the venue for the first time.

Organisers Incarace Ltd said the accident happened in the final race of the two-litre banger class involving about 50 cars. It now plans to hold a tribute to coincide with the anniversary of the death.

Crispin Rosevear, of oval racing group Autospeed, based in Cornwall, said a trophy or meeting could be named after the late driver to reflect his popularity.

Mother escapes flat
fire as she feeds baby

A HEDNESFORD family spoke of the moment they were forced to flee their home after the flat beneath them caught fire. Mother Lyndsey Haughey, aged 32, was feeding her seven-month-old daughter when the fire broke out.

She and husband Shane, 31, fled with baby Frankie when their first floor flat began to fill with smoke.

Fire crews rescued a 31-year-old man, who lives in the ground floor flat. He was hospitalised following the blaze in Wilcox Avenue, Green Heath, at 10.45pm on Tuesday, January 10. His bedroom was left severely damaged.

Mrs Haughey said: "I smelled the smoke and then I heard the fire alarm. I looked down the landing and it was even smokier."

A £13 MILLION plan for apartments for older residents in Penkridge has been expanded.

Previously 70 new flats were to be created on the site of the former Silverdene nursing home in Tildesley Close. Now 12 new apartments, a gym, a cafe and a hair salon have been added.

The South Staffs Housing Association development, aimed at the over-55s, is going out for public consultation at the Haling Dene Centre in Cannock Road.

People can give their opinions before the plans are submitted to South Staffordshire Council next month.

The events are on Saturday from 2-5pm and on Wednesday (January 25) from 4-7pm.

Slimline Deb now fit to join in wii family fun

Deb Rose as she looked before her weight loss

WHEN Deb Rose stepped on the Wii Fit she was hoping to join in fun with the family. But she was horrified when the machine told her she was too heavy to use it.

At 22st 6lb and a size 28, the machine told the 33-year-old mother-of-two that it could not cope with her weight. Deb's computerised mii character even exploded on screen.

After years of battling the bulge, it was the wake-up call she needed and forced her into shedding just under nine stone in two years.

Stunned

Deb, who lives in Brownhills and has two daughters, Alana, eight, and Summer, two, said: "I was so miserable, but didn't realise how sad I was until I look back at that time."

"We bought my eldest daughter Alana a Wii Fit for Christmas but when I got on it the game made my character explode before we could

by Cathy Spencer

even start. I was stunned when it said I was too heavy for it."

Deb, who works at Asda in Cannock and is married to Tim, joined Weight Watchers at the Park View Centre in Brownhills in January 2010.

She swapped her diet of biscuits, crisps, and curries for fruit, cereals and low-fat meals, and hasn't looked back, adding: "I'm still keen to lose more weight and it would be wonderful to get to my goal of 11st 10lb."

Now Deb's back on the Wii Fit with her daughters. "As soon as I'd lost enough weight to use the Wii I was on it - and I can join in with the family."

Co-Op bid at old car sales site

AROUND 50 new jobs are to be created on the landmark site of a former car sales showroom in Burntwood.

A new Co-Op supermarket is planned for 'The Spot' in Chasetown on the site of the former Citroen which closed last year with the loss of 15 jobs.

The site, on the corner of Highfields Road and Pool Road, had been occupied by garages since the 1920s.

Under the plans the site will be shared by the supermarket and a takeaway. The garage will be demolished. Citroen had the site for around 15 years.

The new plans show 21 customer car park spaces and four for staff.

The Co-Op will operate between 7am and 11pm.

Players wanted to join in football competition

FOOTBALLERS are being encouraged to join leagues in Lichfield and Burntwood. Leisure Leagues run small-sided competitions at King Edward VI Leisure Centre, Burntwood Leisure Centre and Erasmus Darwin Academy in Chasetown.

Senior manager Chris Rowntree said: "Many people will have spent the festive period over-indulging and it is unlikely this was balanced out."

The Burntwood leagues take place on Sunday and Monday nights at Burntwood Leisure Centre and Thursdays at Erasmus Darwin. Lichfield games are on Sundays and Mondays. Call 0845 230 2340 or see www.leisureleagues.net

Fraudster is given a jail stretch of 40 months

A SERIAL conman from Cannock has been jailed for 40 months for a string of hopeless scams. Brian Shaw was living in a fantasy world of fraud, Stafford crown court heard.

Fraudster Brian Shaw

Shaw, of Juniper Close, was out of jail on licence when he stole cheques from his sister-in-law and used them to buy top of the range BMWs from Knights in Stafford. He went on to try to buy two upmarket homes in the Stafford area, promising to pay for them in cash.

He claimed he had an inheritance from his mother's estate. In one instance, the owner of a £480,000 house at Bednall was duped into handing over £4,500 to Shaw on the premise that it was a half share of the cost of a survey.

Paul Farrow, prosecuting, said the cheques used in the purchase of the cars were returned, the survey was never carried out and Shaw did not have the funds to buy either the house at Bednall, or another at Coppenhall valued at £430,000.

Caught

Shaw, aged 45, admitted charges of theft and fraud and was told by Judge Mark Eades he had "lost sight of reality".

"You seem to spend most of your life acting dishonestly in a way that guarantees you'll be caught, but you cause other people huge anxiety and loss," he said.

The judge heard Shaw had a string of previous convictions for dishonesty including theft and fraud.

Michael Anning, defending, said: "It was always doomed because the cheques were never going to clear, sometimes his grip on reality is entirely lost."

Bad Rats perform

IRISH influenced punk band The Bad Rats are playing at the White Hart in Wolverhampton Road, Cannock on Friday, February 3. Support on the night is from Flatline Stereo who will be on-stage about 9pm. Admission is free.

Open days at college to promote courses

SOUTH Staffordshire college is staging a series of open days for prospective students from next week. The college will be promoting its courses to those looking to enrol in September.

Spread over four days, the events will take place at the all four of the college's campuses, beginning at Rodbaston on Monday (January 23) between 6pm and 8pm.

Tamworth will be open for the same time period the following day. The Lichfield Campus will be open between 6pm and 8pm next Wednesday and the Cannock site will be open between 5pm and 7pm the day after.

Experienced staff and students will be on hand to give advice and discuss the support services available to learners.

Now the Christmas decorations are down, your decor may look as fresh as last year's holly. With that in mind, Gabrielle Fagan discovers simple ways to refresh your house for 2012

Making A House Your Home author, Clare Nolan, suggests that by regrouping and re-arranging furniture you will create a whole new look without any outlay

Stylish makeover with room for improvement

THE holiday's over and while it's common to feel you're suffering from a little too much partying, there's another often overlooked symptom – a decor hangover.

Once you've disposed of that sparkling tree and taken down the cards, even the best of rooms can look dull and bare by comparison. Winter's harsh light can expose past-their-best colour schemes and furnishings, too.

"Don't suffer from decor doldrums. Instead, take this as the perfect time to look at rooms afresh and decide whether they really work for you," says Clare Nolan, stylist and interiors author, whose new book, Making A House Your Home, is packed with inspiration and clever tips to help with a New Year revamp. "Step away from questions of style and think about what it is you actually do at home. How do you spend your time?"

"Making changes to your home so it fits your lifestyle can be just as important as choosing the colour of the walls. So if you love a hobby, you should try to make a space where you can enjoy it or, if you entertain, the dining area should be a feature."

To revamp a home, you may only need to re-arrange furniture, which could also open up a new area. By repositioning artwork, mirrors, rugs and lighting, you can create different focal points and change the atmosphere.

"Avoid the knee-jerk reaction of chucking out and buying new," says Nolan.

"When relocating things, start with anything that isn't working hard or earning its keep in its current position, but think outside the box."

"A bed quilt could become a chair cover, a tablecloth or even a wall hanging. A chair could double as a bedside table, and a bench transform into a console table. Get creative."

RENOVATE AND REVIVE

Makeovers don't have to be confined to TV programmes and DIY experts. An old piece of furniture can be given a facelift easily.

"It's really quite astonishing just what a difference paint can make," Nolan says.

"An old-fashioned piece of brown furniture you wouldn't look twice at, can be elevated to perfectly chic with a couple of coats of solid colour."

STYLIST TRICKS: You can paint almost anything you love the shape of – the surface finish and colour won't matter. Simply apply a specialist primer to suit it, whether plastic, metal or wood.

"Painting and wallpapering a piece can be truly stylish," Nolan says. "You can wallpaper drawer fronts, add a coat of varnish to protect the finish and paint the frame. Add new handles and you have an individual, distinctive feature for little cost."

A wall of storage makes an interesting focal point

COLOUR ME BEAUTIFUL

"Colour has a huge impact on the mood of a home," says Nolan. "It's a powerful tool and has the ability to make your heart sing or sink, so repainting a few walls could be just the boost your home and wellbeing needs."

In a small home, use a palette of tonal colours, which are only slightly darker or lighter than each other, to make the space feel bigger.

KILL THE CLUTTER

Dejunking and decluttering can be painful, says Nolan, but as well as giving space, it will allow your decorative items to star and earn their place in the home.

"Your mantra should be 'use it, love it, or lose it,'" she says.

"If you can't bear to part with something and you've got enough storage space, consider having winter and summer looks. Just pack things away and bring them back into use when the season changes."

STYLIST TRICKS: Sacrificing a whole wall to storage may seem excessive, but once fitted, you'll wonder how you ever managed without it, says Nolan.

"Don't overlook the potential of lighting in cupboards. Recessed spotlights in cabinets and strip lights under shelves all shed light where you need it."

Acting now to get the home of your dreams

TIME is now running out for West Midlands' first-time homebuyers to take advantage of the Government's stamp duty holiday – but buying a brand new Bovis Home could help them beat the deadline.

First-time buyers have been exempt from paying stamp duty on properties priced between £125,000 and £250,000 since the budget of 2010, but the holiday will be over after March 24.

From March 25, anyone who takes ownership (ie legally completes) on these homes will have to pay one per cent of the purchase price in stamp duty tax. Bovis Homes have quality properties available in this price range at Spirit Quarters, Coventry, Nether Hall Park, Great Barr, College Gate, Oldbury and Oxford Place, Walsall.

Deadline

"The holiday is almost over – but there could still be time for homebuyers to make the most of it if they buy a brand new Bovis Home," said group marketing director Kevin Wilkins. "That one per cent could be a significant extra cost for the buyer – up to £2,500 in some cases – so there is a real saving to be made by completing your house purchase before the deadline."

"However, the danger is that first-time buyers may fail to appreciate how long the homebuying process could take and they may leave it too late in the New Year to make the most of this important benefit."

"The advantage of buying new is that the buyer has a far greater chance of making the deadline and achieving the stamp duty saving," added Kevin.

Those assistance schemes include FirstBuy where a joint 20 per cent equity loan from the Government and Bovis Homes means the buyer requires a five per cent deposit and a 75 per cent loan-to-value mortgage.

SUZUKI'S latest Special Edition Grand Vitara model, SZ-T, which goes on sale this week.

SZ-T is based on the popular five door 1.9DDiS model and offers a unique enhanced specification with just 500 cars available.

The SZ-T model is available for £22,315 including metallic paint and has a comprehensive list of standard equipment including new design front grille, new design 18-inch alloy wheels, unique contrasting seat fabric, Silver coloured roof rails and bonnet side vents, built in turn signal lamps for the door mirrors and, for this Special Edition, a tailgate mounted spare wheel. Cruise Control and keyless entry and start are also included.

The Euro 5 emissions 1.9-litre DDiS engine has a power output of 129PS with torque of 300Nm from just 2,000rpm offering strong flexibility when overtaking or driving off road.

Emissions

In combined cycle driving, the DDiS model returns 41.5mpg with emissions of 179g/km.

Suzuki launched its first Vitara 24 years ago, creating the world's first compact SUV and tapping into a new market for vehicles that deliver true off-road performance with responsive, fun-to-drive on-road performance. Since then the stylish and versatile SUV has steadily evolved and kept pace with growing demand for good-looking and versatile 4x4s that are as rewarding on the open road as they are motoring off the beaten track. Grand Vitara remains a true off roader with its switchable low/high ratio Four Wheel Drive system.

SZ-T is available in five metallic colours: Quasar Grey, Silky Silver, Blueish Black Pearl, Phoenix Red Pearl and Nocturne Blue Pearl.

The right to repair

UNFORTUNATELY the Euro 5 and 6 Regulations only guaranteed the availability of technical data and repair information for cars first registered after 2009.

There would be no guarantee that the independent trade and motoring organisations could continue to access repair information and technical data for vehicles registered before 2009 if the BER were allowed to lapse.

The independent 'Right to Repair Campaign' eventually succeeded in having the Block Exemption Regulations renewed and improved. This ensured that technical data and workshop procedures remained available.

By securing access to technical and repair information the Block Exemption Regulation helps to:

- Keep repair costs down
- Provide security for independent garages and specialists such as auto-electricians, air conditioning specialists and body repairers
- Ensure you don't have to wait too long or travel too far for servicing or repairs

Servicing a new car

CHANGES to the BER in 2002 included clauses intended to increase choice when it comes to servicing of a new car. You cannot be obliged for an example as a condition of warranty, to have your car serviced by a franchised dealer.

Other changes at that time permitted multi-brand showrooms and no longer obliged dealers to combine sales and service/repair – though most have continued to do so.

The work can be carried out by an independent garage as long as that garage uses manufacturer approved parts and correctly follows the manufacturer's service schedule. Independent garages generally have much lower overheads than franchised dealers so their hourly labour rate is also cheaper.

Although you are free to have your car serviced at whichever garage you like – and benefit from the cost savings – you can't then expect much help and goodwill from the manufacturer if the car develops a major fault just after the warranty has expired. Manufacturers often cite lack of loyalty on the customer's part as the reason for their decision not to assist with the cost of a post-warranty repair.

Exemption law helps dealer and customers

EUROPEAN Union competition law exists to prevent anti-competitive practices and abuse of companies' dominant market positions.

But, in recognition of the unique technical complexity of their products, the motor industry has – since 1995 – enjoyed a so called 'block exemption' from some aspects of competition law.

Under the Motor Vehicle Block Exemption Regulations (BER), the industry was allowed to continue to operate a franchised dealer network, controlling who would sell their products and where they could do so – a selective and exclusive distribution network in the jargon. This wasn't complete exemption though and the BER included clauses protecting consumer rights regarding service and repair. The BER were introduced in 1995 and updated at the end of 2002. One specific requirement of the Regulations was that technical data and repair instructions should be made available to the independent motor trade so owners were not obliged to take their car to a franchised dealer for service or repair. This also ensured that data was available to enable us to fix cars at the roadside. By the time the BER were next due for renewal in 2010, new car exhaust emissions regulations had been agreed for 'Euro 5' and 'Euro 6'.

These set the limits for a number of toxins, including particulate matter but also specified that manufacturers must make technical data and repair information available to the independent trade.

The EU initially took the view that with access to technical information covered by Euro 5 and 6 Regulations and the motor industry generally working well, there was no need to renew BER.

Paul McCartney tribute Wings way to Tackeroo

THERE will be no Band on the Run when a Paul McCartney tribute act stops off for a night in Hednesford tomorrow (Friday).

McCartney's incredible career now spans more than 50 years, from The Beatles to Wings and solo material, and the tribute band will have dozens of hits to choose from when they perform at the Tackeroo pub, in Bracken Close, Brindley Heath, from 9pm.

Soul and funk covers band Soulville perform on Saturday night (January 21). Tickets for both gigs are £5.

Call 01543 423124 for more details.

TV star hopes to make an impression with Coward

POPULAR television impressionist Alistair McGowan will be showcasing the finest work of Noel Coward at the Lichfield Garrick Theatre, in Castle Dyke, next month.

Group to perform Aladdin at theatre

McGowan will be joined by versatile soprano Charlotte Page and the pair will run through some of Coward's most celebrated songs and verses.

Many of Coward's lesser-known works will also feature in the highly-acclaimed show. It follows on from a sell-out run at the Edinburgh Festival in 2009 and two runs at The Riverside Studios in Hammer-smith.

Many of the dramatised verses, including Not Yet the Dodo, are being performed publicly for the first time and the songs from Never Again to If Love Were All have been freshened up by Warren Willis' new arrangements.

Funny

Writer and broadcaster Gyles Brandreth called the show "romantic, poignant, painful and funny".

He added it featured "all one would expect from Coward and a lot that one wouldn't".

Sincerely Noel comes to the Lichfield Garrick theatre on Wednesday, February 8, starting at 7.30pm.

For tickets, which cost £16.50, visit www.lichfieldgarrick.com or call the box office on 01543 412121.

Performers' plea

ENTERTAINERS are needed for a musical production which takes place from May 17-19 at Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School. Aldridge Musical Comedy Society is staging Return to the Forbidden Planet. Rehearsals are on Wednesdays from 8-10pm at Keeling School of Dance, Aldridge. If interested, call Sarah on 07792 002083.

The Waltz King of Europe is returning to the UK with his Orchestra to perform in concert next year at The O2 Arena in London.
Acknowledged as one of the world's greatest living musical legends, Dutch-born Andre Rieu was classically trained, and is now an accomplished violinist, an excellent conductor and a truly remarkable showman.
With his orchestra, choir and soloists, he brings a delightful and innovative approach to his concerts, recreating the atmosphere of 19th century Viennese dance halls, where audiences sway with the music, hum along and even dance in the aisles - it all happens!
During the concert you will hear music from across the star's repertoire, from his first album, 'Strauss & Co' to his latest release, 'And the Waltz Goes On'. It will be a truly wonderful experience that you'll remember for years to come.

Ferocious pace proves too much for Lichfield

by Craig Birch

to 9-22 in Bournville's favour.

Within five minutes of the restart, following excellent work from Adam Clarke, Will Cotterhill and Matt Smith, Greg Massey accelerated through a gap in the Bournville line to glide in for a try which he converted. Lichfield's buoyant mood was soon quashed as impressive No.8 Nick Southern crossed the line following another effective driving maul. It appeared that Bournville had depleted their energy levels as Luke Massey ran a superb switch play with brother Greg who ran another try in under the posts. His conversion took the score to 17-27 and the Lichfield squad sensed an opportunity. Cotterhill was dragged down metres from the try line. From that ruck, the ball was transferred for the impressive Paul Maxwell - Keys to touch the ball down over the line.

As both teams tired, Bournville winger Chris Humphreys broke the line and the ruck resulted in a yellow card for Lichfield's Paul Finnemore, deemed to have come in from the side of the ruck.

Bournville's hooker, Dean Bick crossed the line to take the score to 32-22. With seconds left on the clock, the outstanding Richard Burton bust through two tackles to offload to Cotterhill. Greg Massey converted the try which took the score to 29-32, but Lichfield had run out of time.

Lichfield look forward to a tough challenge as they travel to face a Bedworth team, fighting for survival in Midlands One.

Late onslaught yields a landslide scoreline

TWELVE points in the last two minutes created a scoreline which was harsh on Burntwood as they went down 40-10 at Stafford.

The hosts were clearly the better team, particularly before the break, but the visitors drew a blank in the second half despite spending a lot of time in Stafford territory.

Attacking the clubhouse end, Stafford were dominant in the opening quarter. Prolonged phases of play led to their first try after six minutes wide out on the right. It needed a good tackle by Craig Seedhouse to deny a second try nine minutes later.

Winger Mitch Adams emerged groggy from another heavy tackle and he was replaced by Dan Thornton. The Stafford scrum proved strong and it led to their second try on 18 minutes. From five metres out an offload down the narrow side created the touchdown. A fine conversion put them 12 points up. However, Burntwood hit back from the restart to give themselves hope. They forced an error deep in the home 22 which had them scrumming five metres out. They lost the scrum but won a penalty. Ben Holt worked an opening for Matt Wood and he darted over by the posts for a try which he also converted.

A missed kick to touch at the restart allowed Stafford to make progress to the visitors' 22. They increased their lead with a penalty goal when Burntwood were guilty of not rolling away in the tackle.

Drives

Wood made a good run to put his side in Stafford territory but the ensuing scrum was lost and a long touch-finder had Burntwood pinned back in their own 22. A drive by the home forwards sucked in the cover to allow a third try midway out to the left.

Another good restart kick by Wood was reclaimed by his pack and a series of drives presented Seedhouse with a well-struck drop goal to make it 20-10.

The half concluded with a missed tackle on halfway which set the hosts driving through the forwards. Burntwood infringed again and the home kicker split the uprights for a 23-10 lead.

Stafford scored a bonus point try five minutes after the restart by working the ball down the backs for a try in the left corner.

Much of the rest of the half was spent in home territory.

A good offload by Holt was stopped illegally and the referee awarded a penalty, an extra 10 metres and he also sin binned the home tight head prop. Wood launched the penalty as an up and under which produced a scrum five to his side.

By Robert Forsyth

Possession was moved to Seedhouse but his chip behind the home defence evaded Thornton.

Stafford repeatedly fell foul of the referee to present a series of penalty awards but Burntwood failed to take advantage due to their own handling errors in attempting to score a try to put themselves back in the game.

The nearest they came was a fine break by Ollie Whitehouse from a scrum on halfway. He evaded everybody but the full back who did well to pull him down close to the line.

Then it was Stafford on the break but a good chase and tackle by Wood stopped the home winger as he threatened to escape on halfway.

With the result decided and the game moving into added time, Stafford got close to the visitors' try line. After a delay for an injury, the home pack drove over from five metres for a try.

Then, straight from the restart, Stafford took possession, moved the ball out to the backs and broke clean through centre field for an excellent try. The successful conversion concluded the match.

With no league games this weekend, fixtures for Burntwood's senior sides are all to be announced. Their next Midlands 2 West North games are home to Moseley Oak on January 28 and then away to Spartans on February 4.

DIAMONDS took charge of this game. It was soon 1-0 thanks to Megan Brindley's decision to shoot first time, catching the keeper out.

Millie Fletcher danced her way past the Burntwood defenders to score a hat-trick which was fully deserved for her hard work, pressure and great decision making. Her shooting boots were firmly back on and she stole the show. So it's top of the league and no goals conceded thanks to a perfectly timed Rhianna Cleverly challenge late on.

Another win for this ever improving team. Jess Fowler opened the scoring in the first half. Charli Phillpot scored both second half goals. Player of the match award went to Emily Gray-Davis, opposition manager's award to Fowler.

Walsall Ladies Res1
Shenstone Ladies2

In a tight game Shenstone came away with all three points thanks to their two recent signings.

They went into the lead after 20 minutes when quick-thinking Kirstie Southam pounced on a loose ball on the edge of the box and slotted in at the near post. Shenstone held the lead to the break with a solid team effort.

In the second half both teams went all out for the win and Walsall punished Shenstone early on when the defence was caught napping and they made the most of the chance to equalise.

This led to a tense finale with both sides going close.

In the final seconds Shenstone were awarded a penalty for hand ball and debutant Ellisha Bushby stepped up to smash home the winner.

Girls wanted for academy

WYRLEY JUNIORS FC is looking for youngsters aged between five and nine who want to join the club's girls academy.

The girls train at Cannock Cricket & Hockey Club from 6-7pm each Tuesday, with coaching carried out by a level two coach.

The club creates at least two new girls teams every year.

Spokesman Keith Hardy said: "The club is looking for enthusiastic girls who want to join a very friendly group who are improving week after week."

For more information people can contact Keith on 07836202764.

Honours even in six-goal thriller

AN EXCITING Midland Alliance clash between Heath Hayes and Heather St John ended 3-3.

Hayes should have grabbed an early lead when Tom Baggott headed over a Craig Hancock cross. It was the visitors who drew first blood when Chris Lewis forced his way through to score after 12 minutes.

Hayes levelled within five minutes when Chris Geldart set up Dave Waple to fire home from 12 yards. Visiting keeper Jamie Brassington then made two excellent saves to deny Andrew Davies and Joe McNulty.

At the other end, it was no surprise when Dave Yonwin gave them an interval lead.

Hayes were level again on 51 minutes when Joe McNulty fired home from 22 yards for the best goal of the game. Geldart put them in front, hooking the ball over Brassington's head.

Hayes were fortunate to survive a couple of goal-mouth scrambles. With five minutes to go they conceded a needless free-kick and Yonwin reacted first to Joe Mills' delivery to score with a glancing header.

Reserves' lead at top is extended

CHASETOWN Reserves increased their lead to four points at the top of the first division with a 3-0 away day victory at Oadby Town.

The slippery conditions didn't deter the Scholars as they set about their task in a businesslike manner. Their early pressure paid off when Jonathan Gould picked up a loose ball on the left and returned it across goal. Chad Degville was first to connect, hammering the ball beyond the reach of Oadby keeper Ryan Tilly.

The Scholars looked comfortable and started to search for a second goal, which did not come until the second period when Drew Aiton made the game safe.

A third was on the cards and it duly arrived on 86 minutes. Christian Darby won on the halfway line and sent an intelligent pass to Theo Robinson who produced an acute finish.

The league leaders are on their travels again this weekend as they visit Highgate United.

Ward off the bench to rescue Tackeroo

AN ENTERTAINING 5-5 thriller was played out between Division Four's bottom two teams - Tackeroo and Green Rock Rovers - who have only three wins between them.

On 10 minutes, Lee McDonald put Tackeroo one up but shortly after Green Rock replied with three goals in the space of 10 minutes.

The second half saw Green Rock go goal crazy by adding another two to make it five. Their fans could hardly believe it, as Rovers have scored only five goals in their previous 12 games. Greg Martin pulled a goal back and then, with 25 minutes to go, the game was changed by an inspired substitution.

On came Ryan Ward to net two goals and then complete his hat-trick with a well-taken penalty.

The final score was 5-5 and the game was well refereed by John Wells.

Green Heath jumped to third in Division Five with a crushing 9-3 win over Bridgtown Social.

Dan Lawley hit the back of the net five times, Jack Mason scored three and Jamie Brooks added the other. Second-placed Hen House beat their local rivals Church Hill Vic 5-0.

Cannock Chase League

Brad Martin kept the match ball with a derby-day hat-trick and Simon Traat and Joel Sturgess adding a goal each.

The top two from Division Four come face-to-face in the Bill Davis Cup second round with Cannock & Rugeley in the end just edging out 10-man Winding Wheel.

Eighteen-year-old Luke Farley bagged two excellent goals, 11 for the season, and one from Chris Green made it 3-1 to the cricketers as the wheel fell off for the Winding.

Cannock on cloud nine as Mann hits hat-trick

CANNOCK Hockey Club saw their fifth XI shake off a rusty start to thrash Telford 9-2.

Tom Bunn opened the scoring with a fine strike from the top of the D before captain Karl Owen bagged a brace from short corners to put his side in command.

By half-time, Paul Martin had grabbed a goal and Guralp Mann had added another two. The second half saw Cannock take their foot off the gas and Telford took the chance to grab two goals, much to the dismay of keeper Horn.

This kicked Cannock back into gear and they began to play well once more. Mann bagged his hat trick midway through the second half when he drag-flicked a short corner in to the top left corner.

Raff Moscatiello finally got on the score sheet and Martin finished off proceedings with a mercurial effort.

Cannock still find themselves top of the league after this 9-2 victory and will hope to continue this form in the coming weeks.

Elsewhere, Cannock Under-16s started 2012 with a 4-1 friendly victory against Birmingham City University.

The game was yet another tough test for the lads as they prepared for the next stage of the EH Cup.

The Uni side began the stronger put the U16s under severe pressure and, with no real out ball Cannock struggled to get a grip.

As the half progressed Cannock defended well and soon the early pressure eased as the lads soon began to find their passes and the shape.

The game remained even

by Craig Birch

until Callum Swinnerton won a short corner for Cannock late in the half.

The short corner produced the opener as captain Jeewan Dhandha completed a crisp 1-2 combination with Swinnerton to find the bottom corner.

The lads doubled their lead before half time when Guralp Mann finished superbly on the reverse after poor defending.

The half-time calling was to continue with the effort and keep shape. The lads did this will aplomb, passing well and creating chances.

The lads were able to score a further two goals from Ed Carr and Callum Stacey, sadly, but let in a sloppy consolation goal which was harsh on keeper Ollie Balcombe, who was superb, commanding his area and his defence throughout, with the highlight of the afternoon being a memorable triple save.

This was an impressive team performance before the Indoor Finals next weekend.

Tourists shoot to the top from Down Under

Lichfield hockey players and Australian visitors are pictured together in a break from the tourists' matches

VISITORS from Down Under provided the opposition for Lichfield Hockey Club when the club played host to the Australian Wanderers Under-17 boys and girls sides, who are on a tour of Europe.

The boys' match saw the Australians blaze into action. The highlight for the Lichfield defence was when an Aussie let lose a torpedo shot at a penalty corner, a reverse stick stop and shot from the top of the D hit the top of the backboard, never seen before in Lichfield, but something all youngsters will try to imitate.

The Aussies won 3-2. Special mention to two youngsters in the Lichfield side Robert Gray and Oliver Mason who both showed promise. Will Backhouse and Jack Childs showed why they are close to 1st XI selection with Iwan Jackson, Ed Jacobs, Oliver Timmins, Oliver Bowen and Ben Aastland hot on their heels. Bruce Higgins made several good saves with Edward Bowen, Jack Sanders and Finley Saunders defended well.

Lichfield Girls played well against the Australians, tearing into the visitors and winning by five goals.

Storers open up a lead at top

A 21-17 VICTORY enabled D&G Storer to open up a two-point lead at the top of the Briggs Equipment Indoor Bowls League.

They beat S. Edwards and D. Murray while second-placed L. Cavill and M. Bardley lost 21-15 to A&G Parsons.

Elsewhere, B. Preece and C. Marshman defeated A. Preece and F. Statham 21-10 while D. Hayward and V. Gray were 21-15 victors over M. Evans and L. Pritchatt.

Scholars teen gets Sky Blue chance

CHASETOWN goalkeeper Mariusz Kisiel will get the chance to impress at Coventry City after landing a two-day trial with the Championship club.

The Polish-born teenager was this week with the Sky Blues, working under the tutelage of goalkeeping coach Steve Ogrizovic.

The 17-year-old, who is based in Great Barr, has already been registered with the Scholars first-team and was an unused substitute against Heath Hayes in the Walsall Senior Cup.

Kisiel leaves with the permission of academy boss Andy Turner and follows the path of Lee Wright, a former graduate who went to the Football League with Wycombe in July 2010.

Wright was the first to come through the youth system, which was set up in August 2009, and Kisiel could have a choice of clubs if he decides to follow, according to Turner.

He said: "Mario has done fantastically well, he's gone to Coventry but there's one or two other Football League clubs that want to have a look him at well."

"He's looking forward to it, as he should do, and we wouldn't want to stand in his way if it comes off for him."

"It's a testament to what we are trying to do here."

Wright is now back at the Scholars Ground on work experience with the first-team, as Wycombe look for him to get his first-team education started.

Late success for juniors

CHASE Swimming Club's junior squad came out on top in a highly competitive friendly gala in their first outing of the new season.

Five of the areas top teams competed for the Glenthorne Cup at Cheslyn Hay Leisure Centre.

It was a hard fought battle with Cannock Phoenix and Stourbridge putting the pressure on. In the 51st and final event of the night Chase swimmers swam superbly to pull away and become the eventual winners by four points.

Junior coach Debbie Handley praised the young swimmers.

She said they swam to their full potential, with many swimmers setting personal bests.

All-round effort keeps up impressive form

by Craig Birch

CANNOCK rugby club kept up their impressive recent form with a 25-14 success at Stoke's second XV.

Stoke is team of talented and young players and Cannock, a mobile team by the standards of their league, had to work hard to stop them rounding their defence.

Impeccable tackles by wingers Phil Pedley and Stewart MacDougall kept the youngsters in field.

Lightning work at the breakdown from Stephen Frost, filling in at second row, and Brad Stanaway ensured that this was going to be no easy option either but after 10 minutes of incessant pressure Stoke converted a penalty.

Sniping breaks from scrum half, Will Jukes, allowed Cannock decent field position but with him tied in, Ryan Pali stepped up to scrum half and from around the home team's 10 yard line picked up, drew his man and offloaded to Jon Freeman.

He cut a lovely line between two static defenders, showing a clean pair of heels to leave cover defenders in his wake.

One-on-one with the full back, the Can-nock skipper looked for support, but finding himself on his own he elegantly side-stepped the No 15 to dot down under the posts for a converted try.

Stoke got back into the game with two quick penalties to take the score to 9-7.

Strong carries from Matt Madsen and Joe Brookes gave the visitors great field position.

A quick ball and a missed pass saw B. Stanaway straighten the line with a strong carry. A ball that was too quick for Stoke to cover put Sonny Stanaway away.

The man-beast fended off two defenders before being held up 10 metres short. Fantastic support from the Cannock pack saw ball secured, a pick and go with Pali-J getting the try to take the score to 9-12.

The 10-12 pairing of Craig MacDougall and Scott Pedley turned the screw with intelligent kicks in behind ensuring Stoke had no field position from which to play.

The third score came as the scrum strode over the line, leaving Freeman a simple a 50cm drive to score. MacDougall converted.

Continued pressure, and a piercing run from Will Watkins, allowed MacDougall to slot two further penalties to take the score to 9-25 before Stoke scored a consolation try.

Fit-again Kightly ready for long run

MICHAEL Kightly insists he is fully match-fit and ready to play regularly for Wolves after impressing in the 1-1 draw at Tottenham.

The Wolves winger was still going strong after 95 minutes at White Hart Lane in his first Premier League game since September.

Until a recent loan spell at Watford, he had only played sporadically after almost two years out.

But the 25-year-old reckons he is now as good as he was before his injury problems first surfaced in March 2009.

"It was brilliant for me," said the former England Under-21 international.

"My loan spell couldn't have gone any better and the fitness I picked up there showed at Tottenham."

"I feel back to the full fitness I had two years ago. It's amazed me how long it's taken to come back."

"I've been injury-free for a while now but it's only in the last month or two that my match fitness has come back and I think that showed on Saturday. It was nice to play every minute of the game and I felt I got stronger as it went on."

Wolves made it four successive unbeaten away games after avoiding defeat at Arsenal, at Bolton Wanderers and at Birmingham City in the FA Cup.

And Tottenham fan Kightly believes the resolve they showed at the weekend will stand them in good stead for the two successive home games coming up.

Confidence is boosted

LICHFIELD Ladies Hockey Club's 4th XI head into Saturday's league clash with Barton having enjoyed a friendly victory over the same opposition.

It was a closely-fought match and Lichfield waited until the last 15 minutes of the match to convert their pressure into goals with Emma Harper and Sally Jeffries both finding the back of the net. Ellie Doubleday was solid in midfield and goalkeeper Katie Burke made numerous good saves to give Lichfield a clean sheet.

PITMEN DEFIANT AS RED CARDS PILE UP

DEFIANT Hednesford boss Rob Smith has defended his side's disciplinary record – and insisted they will continue to be physical.

The promotion-chasing Pitmen had two players sent off during last Saturday's 2-2 Evo-Stik Northern Premier Division clash at Nantwich Town. Darren Campion and Jamey Osborne both saw red – taking the total of Hednesford dismissals this season to six.

Smith said: "I don't argue our disciplinary record is poor, but we must remember I ask my players to be very competitive and stand up for themselves. Sometimes, with frustration, the younger players show their inexperience and react in the wrong way, but they will learn with time. I won't make any excuse for asking for 100 per cent commitment."

"People bang on about fair play tables and discipline, but the teams who will be at the top end of the table will be those who are physically competitive."

"Saturday was probably the most proud I have been in my whole management career. The ten, then nine who stayed on, were a credit."

"We have seen that commitment time and time again, Stafford, Walsall and many others. It shows immense character and togetherness in the squad."

Redeemed

Cheyenne Dunkley topped a dominant defensive performance with two second-half goals, the first a majestic header from a Chris Clements corner to equalise at 1-1 while his team had 10 men, and the second a tap-in from two yards which made it 2-1 to nine-man Hednesford with 16 minutes left.

Sadly for Smith's side, the numerical advantage told in the end and Si Everall turned in a cross to level with 13 minutes to play.

Desperate defending from Hednesford then secured the point.

Hednesford skipper Campion saw red for allegedly kicking Michael Lennon under provocation after his team went behind on the half-hour mark. Osborne was to follow him for a second bookable offence.

The visitors were hassled and harried out of their stride by Nantwich, who opened the scoring on 28 minutes when a through-ball caused hesitation between Ben Bailey and Dan Crane and left Lennon to notch his 100th goal for The Dabbers.

Following Campion's dismissal all looked lost for a Pitmen side which struggled to get past giant centre-half Mat Bailey, although the defender did roll an ill-advised back-pass just past the post shortly before the interval.

The beginning of the second half saw a similar story to the first, but Crane redeemed himself with two superb saves from Lee Steele, the first at full stretch to turn away a shot from distance and the second a brave dive at the feet of the advancing striker.

The equaliser came when Clements' corner saw Dunkley leap and power the ball home on 64 minutes.

The Pitmen took the lead as keeper Jonny Brain failed to collect a long ball when challenged by Dunkley and the defender tapped in from a yard. Nantwich equalised

by Steve Box

but the Pitmen defended superbly and move on to their top-of-the-table clash at Chester next Saturday just three points behind the league leaders.

And Smith is hoping his side can benefit from being underdogs, despite the fact they have already beaten the table-toppers this campaign in both the league and the Doodson Sports Cup.

"In my eyes, the pressure is all on Chester," added Smith.

Hopeful

"We will go there to show we can play good football but I have little doubt they will win this division."

"Having said that, we have beaten them twice this season and the players are looking forward to it."

With the Hednesford squad looking thin on the ground following the exit of Pedro Monteiro last week and now the impending suspensions for Campion and Osborne, Smith is hopeful of recruiting reinforcements sooner rather than later.

Smith added: "We are looking at a number of players and loan options."

"A new defender is a must because we are short there now."
